

Humor Mag Hits Stands On March 7

Lyke Is Improved, Editor Maintains

"Lyke", the college humor magazine, will go on sale March 7, according to Editor Stan Bennett. The price will be 25 cents.

"The staff has taken advantage of much of the constructive criticism of the last issue to improve this one," Bennett said.

The March 7 issue will include: an eight-page satire on movie magazines; an editorial by Ed Roper; a three-page photo-spread called "Chee, Ain't Collitch Swell"; a satire on the spring quarter schedule; two or three pages of fashions; "Letter from Oxford," which was written by a former San Jose State college student now attending Oxford university.

"The staff has worked hard," Bennett stated. The publication will lose many of the staff members at the end of the quarter and needs new talent. The editor urges all interested students to join next quarter's staff.

New York Cage Scandal To Get NCAA Inquiry

Los Angeles, Feb. 19.—The New York basketball bribery scandal is having repercussions throughout the nation.

Professor Hugh C. Willett, president of the National Collegiate Athletic association, said today the NCAA will "discuss fully" the recent basketball "fix".

Willett said the association "has no particular jurisdiction in such cases." However, he added that: "We naturally would want to do whatever we could to combat this sort of thing in collegiate athletics."

Basketball Coach Norman Shepard of Harvard college rapped college administrations as responsible for bribery scandals.

"It's time all the colleges got their athletic set-ups on a sensible basis," Shepard said. "They have refused to accept the responsibility for their athletic set-ups and have let every Tom, Dick and Harry come in and run things," he concluded.

Spartan Athletes Are Named Tops

Three San Jose State college athletes and Coach Walt McPherson were named tops in their fields for 1950 at last evening's Banquet of Champions in the Palomar ballroom.

The banquet honors top Santa Clara county athletes in high school, college and professional fields each year. Walt McPherson won "Coach of the Year" honors over rivals from two other colleges and several high schools.

Mac Martinez shared high boxing honors with professional boxer Eddie Chavez, who is eighth ranking lightweight contender for Ike Williams' crown.

George Mattos, SJS pole vaulter, won collegiate track honors, while Vern Wilson, freshman from San Jose high school, took the prep school title.

Guest speaker was Mel Ott of the San Jose Red Sox while Gordon McLendon, president of Liberty Broadcasting System, was master of ceremonies.

R. P. Olson to Lead 69-Member Group

By FRED WESTPHAL

Tonight's concert by the San Jose State college symphonic band has a program that will appeal to fans of all types of music, according to Mr. Robert P. Olson, who will direct the 69-member band.

The concert will be presented at 8:15 p.m. in the Morris Dailey auditorium. There will be no admission charge.

Charles Daval will be the soloist for the evening. He will play "Southern Cross" by Herbert L. Clarke.

Mr. Harold M. Johnson, SJS faculty member, will conduct "Piece Heroic", which he arranged from Cesar Franck's organ score.

The band also will present "Overture for Symphonic Band, Op. 19," by Burnet Tuthill; "Andante and March from the Pathetic Symphony" by Tchaikowski; "Legends of Spain," by Reynaud-Malone; "Newsreel In Five Shots," by William Schuman; "From the Delta," by Still; and "Bravada," by Curzon.

Mr. Olson said yesterday that the program is a technically difficult one, but that the band has done a fine job in its short rehearsal time.

"This program gives every section of the band a chance to show what it can do," Mr. Olson concluded.

Martin States D.P. Students Need Positions

Three of the D.P. students being brought to San Jose State college will be able to enroll in classes immediately. However, two of the group need job assurances until they have mastered English well enough to enter college.

One problem faced by the drive planning committee is to find employment for these two students when they arrive in the summer, according to Jim Martin, Student Y executive secretary.

Money for transportation of the five students from New York to San Jose still is needed, he said yesterday. Two San Jose church councils have promised to underwrite the transportation for two girls, but finances for the other three are needed.

The "Dare to Share" program will continue this week. Week-end work netted the drive $16.

Under the "Dare to Share" program, students who wish to contribute time instead of money may sign up to do unskilled work, offered by townspeople. The money earned from the job will go for D.P. student expenses.

Camping Program Counselors Meet

Requirements for student counselors planning to engage in the Santa Clara county camping program, will be presented tomorrow afternoon in S210 at 3:30 o'clock, according to Dr. Carl Duncan.

Persons wishing to apply for the spring quarter work should attend the meeting, he urges.

The county program is in a developmental stage, Dr. Duncan said. A plan is being formulated by local educators to provide camp training for youngsters. This is an effort to stimulate classroom work, "and has proven extremely successful wherever tried," he pointed out.

Move to Rescind Donation Defeated

A motion to rescind last week's decision to donate $100 to the Lani Dog drive was defeated in a standing vote at yesterday's meeting of the senior council.

Ed Gasper, senior representative to the Student Council, made the motion stating that the seniors had acted hastily in donating the money at this time. He wanted to pledge $100, payable in June. The motion failed to acquire the two-thirds majority necessary for rescission.

Duke Deras, senior president, appointed Rod Kelley as chairman in charge of senior overnight. Kelley reported that Asilomar has been reserved for the spring beach affair. Deras stated that next week's meeting will be held at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon in a room to be chosen later.

Contributions Reach $1255

The "Dog for Lanini" drive now has $1255.36, according to official figures released yesterday by the Co-chairman, Dan Hruby.

Although the drive officially closed Friday, $62.50 was turned in to the Graduate Manager's office yesterday. Organizations that contributed yesterday were: Immanuel Bible class of the First Presbyterian church, $7.50; Chi Omega, $10; Delta Sigma Phi, $10; Alpha Phi Omega student book exchange, $25; and the class of '51, $10.

The Graduate Manager's office also gave out the complete list of contributing organizations. Those not published previously are:

Yets office, $2; Delta Phi Upsilon, $10; San Jose Players, $10; Class of '49, $18.60; Delta Zeta, $4.41; Campbell club, $25; Sigma Pi, $10; CCF, $20.63; and Alpha Phi, $21.75.

Mr. C. W. Moore, local attorney, donated $50 to the drive.

French Week Changes Made

"French Week," Feb. 19 to 25, got under way at Washington Square yesterday with a few last minute changes being made in a full schedule of events designed to promote the French influence around the campus.

Among the last minute changes is the relocation of a speech on French foreign policy at 11:30 a.m., Feb. 23, by Count Jean de Lagarde, French Consul General from San Francisco. The time remains the same, but the location has been changed from the Little Theater to the Morris Dailey auditorium to accommodate a larger audience.

Immediately following the Consul General's appearance on the campus, a luncheon will be held at a place as yet unchosen. All interested persons are invited, according to Julie Alger, publicity chairman. Persons interested in attending must sign up in advance at the Modern Language office before 12 o'clock noon Thursday, Feb. 24. Approximate cost per plate has been estimated at $1.50.

A formal initiation and dinner scheduled by Iota Delta Phi, French honor society at SJS, to be held Feb. 25 at 7 p.m. at the Catholic Women's center, will not be open to the general public.

Campers to Meet

Campers who enrolled in the West Coast Nature school for the Easter vacation trip to Death Valley are to attend a meeting in Room S112 tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock, according to Dr. G. A. McCallum.

"About 170 have signed up to live in the camping area, and at the meeting will be divided into cooking groups," he said.

The Weather

The consensus among weather experts, which includes "The United Press, Associated Press, and the United States Weather Bureau, is that it will rain this morning in the Santa Clara valley.

The temperature will shoot up to a semi-warm 54 degrees this afternoon when it clears up, they say.

Fourteen school days left until finals.

Council Post Aspirants Get Once-over Today

The Student Council will consider the applications of students seeking the position of senior class representative this afternoon at 3:15 o'clock.

Any senior on clear status may apply for the position which was vacated recently by Herb Patnor. Applications should be presented at the ASB office in the Student Union. Applicants also should appear before the Student Council this afternoon, according to Dave Doken, ASB president.

Ed Mosher, Rally committee chairman, will recommend to the council at this afternoon's meeting that future SJS yell leaders be elected by popular vote of the student body.

It was decided at Wednesday's meeting of the Rally committee that more enthusiasm probably would be shown if the students elected the yell leaders. Yell leaders now are appointed by the Student Council in the spring quarter.

Spartan Spinners To Dance Tonight

Spartan Spinners will hold their regular folk dance meeting at the YWCA gym tonight, according to Robinette Woodside, publicity chairman. Beginning dancing starts at 7:30 p.m. and advanced dancing follows.

Several members of the Spartan Spinners attended the festival of the Folk Dance Federation of California in Oakland Sunday afternoon.

Faculty Members To Hear Speakers

State Senator John F. Thompson and Assemblymen Charles S. Gulser and Robert C. Kirkwood will speak on "New Legislation Affecting State Colleges" tomorrow in Room 124 at 4 p.m. to an open meeting of the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors, according to Dr. Gene A. Wallar, chapter chairman.

Dr. Wallar urged all faculty members to attend the session.

Tri Sigma to Hear Delegate of CYA

Mr. Warren Thornton will speak on the subject "Social Work in the Correctional Field" at a Tri Sigma dinner-meeting at the Town House at 6:30 p.m. Feb. 20, according to Carmen Chase, Tri Sigma president.

A field representative for the California Youth Authority, Mr. Thornton formerly was the juvenile probation officer in San Francisco. He was graduated from the School of Social Welfare, University of California at Berkeley.

Members planning to attend should sign up in Room 30 for a reservation, Miss Chase said.

New WAA Heads Will Take Office At Dinner Meeting

Newly elected officers of the Women's Athletic association will be introduced at the WAA banquet to be held at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 22 at Villa Felice, according to Lloyd Thompson, publicity manager.

Ruth Laine, outgoing president, will introduce the following officers during the meeting which will precede the dinner: Joan Chambers, president; Joyce Malone, vice-president; Elaine Straver, corresponding secretary; Shirley McClure, recording secretary; Betty Conover, treasurer; Mary Pahl, publicity manager; and Kay Arnett, recorder of points.

The new officers were elected Feb. 15 and 16. Revisions of the WAA constitution, involving minor changes in wording, were passed at the election.

Entertainment at the banquet will feature the Travelaires, Miss Thompson said.

Tickets are now being sold by WAA Executive Council members who are wearing lapel tags. The price of admission, $1.95 a person, includes the dinner, program and entertainment. Villa Felice is located on the Winchester road, three miles south of Campbell.

Student Displays Sewing Articles

Leona Pilz, senior home economics major, shows what can be done with mechanical sewing aids in an exhibit entitled "Hidden Talents".

"All you need is a little imagination and some 'know-how' about the use of sewing machine attachments to make some very clever articles," Leona said. The practical knowledge of mechanical aids can be acquired in the clothing courses of the Home Economics department, she added.

Division of Business Expands In National Defense Speed-up

The Division of Business is expanding its facilities in order to satisfy the urgent demand accelerated by the national defense program for stenographers and typists, Kenneth Coffin, adviser to the Secretarial department, announced Friday.

The U.S. Civil Service commission has informed the Division of Business that $2400 to $4600 a year stenographic positions are available depending on the amount of training.

In view of this national demand, plus more local calls than can be filled, the Division of Business is considering ways and means of enlarging its stenographic training program. San Jose State college is experimenting with a class in teaching typing and shorthand as a "one-subject" unit.

This correlation of instruction permits acquiring two skills in the time usually allotted for acquiring one. Non-business majors may take this course for one elective.

'Flies' Hits Boards Marking SJS First

Sartre's "The Flies" will be staged for the first time on the Pacific coast when the SJS Drama department presents its production of the ancient Greek theme beginning March 1, according to Dr. Hugh Gillis, head of the Speech and Drama department.

Tickets for the play, which will be given March 1, 2, 3, 5, and 6, are now on sale in the Speech office, according to Mrs. Verda Jackson. Students with ASB cards will be admitted for 60 cents. General admission will be 90 cents.

Twenty-four SJS thespians will appear in the play, according to Dr. James Clancy, who is directing the production.

Eggs and chickens in the mid-west generally are produced in small flocks, supplementary to other farm enterprises.

Local Boxers Praise Vandals As Fine Hosts

The San Jose State college boxing team arrived home yesterday after its 2000-mile junket to the Pacific northwest where it defeated the University of Idaho, 4½-3½, at Moscow Saturday night.

Of the trip, Coach Dee Portal said yesterday, "We enjoyed the finest hospitality ever received by a San Jose State college boxing team."

Mac Martinez, NCAA 125-lb. champ who won over Idaho's Franky Echevarria, backed up Portal's statement by saying, "Everybody treated us like kings. We had a good time before and after the matches, and the officiating of the matches was good."

On Friday night, one night previous to their own meet, the Spartans were taken to Pullman, Wash., where they witnessed the Washington State-Minnesota boxing meet.

J. Morris O'Donnell, a Moscow attorney, arranged the trip for the SJS group. The Gophers defeated WSC, 4½-3½, although various members of the Spartan team said yesterday that the meet should have been a draw.

The Spartans meet Minnesota at Minneapolis March 9.

A Vandal alumnus and composer of the Idaho fight song, O'Donnell spent considerable time with the Spartans. He gave Portal and the team a book of songs he composed. It was inscribed, "To an excellent group of college gentlemen."

The Spartans meet Santa Clara in an exhibition benefit meet Wednesday night in their next outing.

Cagers Encounter COP Five Tonight

With the Northern California independent college hoop leadership at stake, San Jose State college and College of Pacific battle tonight at Stockton.

Although the Tigers sport the best season record, 16-6, their 3-2 local record trails the first-place Spartan record of 4-2. Tonight's victor will take the undisputed lead.

The Spartans will have their hands full at Stockton against a powerful COP quint that nearly overcame a 17-point deficit before dropping a 58-56 thriller in San Jose earlier this month.

San Jose State will be seeking its eighth consecutive win over its traditional rival.

The sky-scraping Tigers are paced by Forward Bill Wirt (6-4) who has an average of 14 points per game. Wirt needs 20 points in his three remaining games to become the first Pacific cager to score 300 points or more in two separate seasons.

In the first meeting between the two teams this season Wirt was held to four field goals by aggressive Elmer Craig, Spartan guard.

Center Howie Pearce (6-6) and Forward Ron Detrick (6-5) round out COP's excellent rebounding trio. With Center George Clark doing yeoman work, the Spartans, however, overcame the Tigers' height advantage to control the backboards in the first contest. Late in the game when Clark began to tire, Pacific made their belated rally.

Coach Christ Kjeldsen probably will start George Moscone and Bud Watkins at the guard positions. Watkins was high scorer for the Stockton quintet against the Spartans with 12 points. It was his shot that gave the first game a Hollywood ending. It rolled around the rim before falling harmlessly to the floor as the final buzzer sounded.

The Spartans will enter the Stockton contest tonight without the services of Captain Bobby Crowe. Crowe has been suffering lately with sacroiliac trouble.

Dean Giles and George Clark paced the Spartan scoring in the recent Cow Palace tourney. Clark finally found the range with his hook shot against USF as he racked up 16 points.

Giles' 39 points in the tourney brought his season total to 309 points for an average of 12.4. He is the sixth Spartan to score 300 points in a season.

Spartan, Gater Mat Squads Vie Tonite

San Francisco State college tonight will play host to Coach Ted Mumby's San Jose State college wrestling team in the Gaters' new gym. First match will start at 8 o'clock.

The local grapplers split a pair of dual matches last week, losing to Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo 19-16 and trouncing a strong UCLA squad at Los Angeles 20-6 Thursday afternoon.

"We displayed our best wrestling of the season against the Bruins," Mumby said yesterday. "The absence of Frank Waxham, co-captain, cost us a possible victory at Cal Poly," he added. Waxham stayed home because of a heavy study schedule.

Raider mat entries for the San Francisco State matches include Bennie Ichikawa, 123 lbs.; Jack Cassidy, 130 lbs.; John Jackson, 137 lbs.; John Melendez or Bill Wardrup, 147 lbs.; Lee Jordan, co-captain, or Ralph Morrocco, 157 lbs.; Waxham, 167 lbs.; Lou Menghini, 177 lbs., and Jean Snyder, heavyweight.

Three local grapplers also are scheduled to appear in exhibition matches against the Gaters. The exhibitioners will include Chuck Matsumoto, 115 lbs.; Bob Billings, 125 lbs., and either Jim Van Houten or L. D. Henry, 167 lbs.

San Francisco's standout is little Joe Kimura, Pacific coast 115-lb. mat titlist in 1950.

Frosh Five Meets SC Quint Tonight

The Santa Clara university freshman basketball team, touted to be the best in the school's history, invades Spartan gym tonight for a skirmish with Coach Tom Cureton's San Jose State college yearlings. The center jump is slated for 8 p.m.

Santa Clara won an early season game between the two squads, 80-59, in the Colts' Seifert gym. The Mission towners have won 15 games this season and have lost only one.

Colt stars are Herb Schoenstein, 6 ft-6 in. center, and Don Benetti, guard and only starter who stands below the 6 ft. mark. Other Colt starters are John Mancino and Bob Harris, forwards, and Jim Young, who holds down the other guard berth. Harris stands 6 ft. 5 in. tall.

Coach Cureton, whose team has won 15 and lost 6 games this season, will start Steve Burnett and Clark Arneal at forwards, Doug Miller, center, and Maurice Duncan and Jim Vettel at the guards. Burnett, tallest member of the local frosh team at 6 ft. 2 in., tallied 25 points when the two teams clashed at Santa Clara last month.

The Spartan frosh cage mentor believes his boys stand an excellent chance of scoring an upset tonight. "If Arneal, Miller, Duncan, Vettel and our reserves continue to support Burnett in the scoring department, we have a chance to down our taller adversaries," Cureton said.

Slick SJS Sleuth Searches For Stolen Etching Salesman

By CARL FERNANDES

San Jose State college's "Mr. Prosecuting Attorney" Herb Lister is hot on the trail of the culprit or culprits who lifted his books from their resting place in the Coop Friday morning.

After finishing his 16th cup of coffee Lister staggered to where he had placed his books and discovered that they were missing.

The missing objects are one text book on salesmanship and five notebooks on assorted topics. One notebook contains "the combined works of Varga, Petty, Dali, and Whistler." Students are warned to be on the lookout for a promising young salesman or a babbling idiot.

The stolen objects have no real pecuniary value but there is a lot of sentimental value attached to them, Lister said. In a personal interview Friday Lister said he believes the job was done by a "very clever, cunning, experienced man." (Editor's note: This is not meant to flatter the thief).

Card Finalists Meet Tonight

Finalists in the campus bridge tournament will meet tonight to determine the San Jose State college championship before playing off with other colleges in the western division.

The runoffs will be held in Room 831, according to Alice Hays, Social Affairs chairman in charge of the campus contest. Dr. Burt Morris and his assistant, Dr. H. Murray Clark, will preside over the finals.

The tournament is sponsored nationally with finalists from eight district divisions to play for trophies in Chicago on April 20 and 21.

Preliminary game winners of the early February contests are partners George Terhune and R. Max Schwellbe, Ed Mitchell and George Spadafora, Ted Richmond and Warren Bishop, and John Stafford and Gene Drew. The partners will meet tonight to determine the winners of the campus tournament.

It is believed that it was an inside job since Lister's books were "inside" the Coop at the time.

Further developments will ensue, Lister hopes.

Art Group Offers Five $1200 Awards

Five grants-in-aid of $1200 are being offered in the fields of art and literature, according to Mr. Edward Clements, chairman of the college service fund committee.

The grants are provided by the Albert M. Bender memorial fund, and have been announced by the San Francisco Art association. The association is managing the grants for the trustees of the fund.

One award will be given in photography, two in painting or sculpture, and two in literature. The awards are intended to enable those who receive the grants to engage in creative work in art or literature, and are not to be used as scholarships for carrying on studies in an educational institution.

To be eligible for the grants an applicant must be under 35 years of age and a resident of central California for at least two years. Applications must be filed with the San Francisco Art association by March 15.

Further information and application blanks may be obtained from Mr. Clements in Room 114.

SJS Skiers Plan 'Winter Carnival' At Donner Ranch

It's "Carnival" time with the SJS Ski club according to Bill Cancilla, club president. The local organization will be host to other clubs of the Bay Area Ski federation Saturday and Sunday at the annual Carnival week-end.

The Carnival will include championship and amateur championship races at Donner Ski ranch. The SJS club will send 80 members to compete in the slalom events.

Snow Queen Pat Mason will reign over the carnival. Pat recently won her title in the club's contest.

The Ski club will conduct the races under direction of Ken Schilling, racing chairman.

Placement Office Offers Positions

Miss Doris Robinson, director of the San Jose State college Placement office, yesterday repeated her announcement that positions selling child-craft books now are open.

She said that there are openings for either summer or full-time salesmen. The salesman can work in his own home area, or in this area, Miss Robinson said.

Interested students should contact the Placement office, Room 108, for further information.

Committee to Use Local Auditorium As Chapel Ball Site

The San Jose Civic auditorium will be the site of the second annual Chapel Ball, sponsored by the Social Affairs committee. The dance will be a dressy affair to be held Friday night, March 9.

Alice Hays, Social Affairs chairman, declared Friday that decoration work is under way.

Bids from various bands have been submitted by Chuck Wing. Admission is by ASB cards and bids must be procured in order to attend, according to the dance committee. The ball will climax a week of activity to raise funds for the proposed chapel, the committee reported.

The Ohio highway study committee estimates that for every 100 miles Ohio city dwellers travel in their automobiles, 61 miles are on city streets, 37 miles are on rural state highways, and two miles are on county and township roads.

Student Court Will Subpoena Fifteen Election Candidates

Prosecuting Attorney Herb Lister presented to the Student Court Friday afternoon the names of 15 candidates in the recent class elections whom he alleges violated election campaign rules regarding posters.

The Student Court will subpoena the 15 individuals concerned this week, to appear before the court, Chief Justice Bob King stated Friday.

Hearings will be held in the
